6. Discussions held by Principal Secretary to Govt. Endts. With Sri Raghavendra Swamy Mutt authorities on 24-04-2015.

ORDER:

In the references 1st and 2nd read above, Government have waived/ deferred certain payments under EAF,CGF and Audit Fees and given certain exemptions under Endowments Act 1987 to Sri Raghavendra Swamy Mutt, Mantralayam, Kurnool District as the mutt was damaged due to heavy floods in the year 2009.

2. In the reference 3rd read above, the subject mutt has requested for waiver of dues of EAF, CGF, Audit Fees. The proposal of the Commissioner, Endowments Department in the reference 4th read above has been examined by Government and observed that Sri Raghavendra Swamy Mutt, Mantralayam is one of the renowned Peethams in India. The Mutt is doing great service to Hindu society for the last 350 years. The Mutt has been utilizing all the funds it has been receiving in the last few years for developing infrastructural facilities in Mantralayam which were badly damaged due to floods in 2009. Mantralayam is gradually turning into a major pilgrimage centre like Tirupati and Puttaparti. It is necessary to nurture the Mutt and allow it to grow into a great institution for the Hindu religion in Andhra Pradesh.

3. After careful consideration, Government fully exempt the Sri Raghavendra Swamy Mutt, Mantralayam from payment of all balanced dues under Endowments Administrative Fund (EAF) upto 2012 -2013.

4. As a special case, all the arrear dues under Archaka Welfare Fund as well as Audit fee also "waived" upto 2012-2013 to strengthen the Dharmika activities of the Mutt.

5. However, the Mutt has to pay an amount of Rs.3,02,35,973 towards Common Good Fund. The CGF amount has to be paid by the Mutt as funds are required to undertake renovation of old Hindu temples as well as for Dhoopa Deepa Naivedyam Scheme and other Dharmika activities of the Department as detailed below :

Financial Year	Demand (Rs.)
2009-10	19,92,317
2010-11	91,79,254
2011-12	96,20,764
2012-13	94,43,638
Balance	3,02,35,973
